In the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia: Ex-Parte: John C. Nelson and James La Fontaine, upon a writ of habeas corpus.

Grounds for motion to quash the writ: First. That the question as to the jurisdiction over the territory comprised in the county of Alexandria and the ownership of the same by the Commonwealth of Virginia, cannot be raised by an individual. It is one which can be raised only by the United States or Virginia.
